Cincinnati Museum

Special Exhibition of Twelve Paintings by Mr. Bryson Burroughs

Art Museum :: Eden Park

March 15th to April 4th : 1912

Number five

Mr. Bryson Burroughs

born at Hyde Park, Mass., 1869, was a pupil of the Art Academy of Cincinnati, and later of the Art Students' League of New York, where he won the first Chanler Scholarship, whereupon he studied for several years in Paris. Now resident in New York and devoting part of his time to the Metropolitan Museum as Curator of Paintings

1. Reflections.
2. Apollo and Daphne.
3. The Graces.
4. The Valley of the Ladies.
5. Psyche at the House of Venus.
6. Portrait of Mrs. S. S.
7. The Princess and the Swineherd.
8. The Temptation of St. Anthony.
9. Venus and Adonis. I.
10. Venus and Adonis. II.
11. The Death of Adonis. III.
12. The Funeral of Adonis. IV.

MUSEUM
G
M
A PRESS